Westland police officer thanked for moving onto Blackfoot

I'm calling in regards to the Sound Off about the policeman that lives on Blackfoot.

I live on Blackfoot and to the policeman I say, "Thank you. Thank you for moving into my neighborhood. Thank you for going by your home. Thank you for driving up and down the street."

With him moving on the street, the speed that people drive has changed from 60 mph to 25, like it's supposed to be. And people actually stop for the stop sign at Wildwood and Blackfoot.

Obviously, the person who made the call must be someone who never stopped at Wildwood and Blackfoot and received a ticket from the officer.

So, again, I say, "Thank you to the officer."

Please take your flags off your cars in high winds or rain

Will you people please take your flags off your cars in high winds or rain?

There was one on the wet road tonight. Cars were running over it. I didn't see it until I was almost on it. I barely made it out of the way.

Please.

How are relatives and outsiders chosen as election workers?

I'm calling about how people are selected to work the city elections. Personally, I'd like to know how these people are selected.

Seniors and friends sign up and these so-called precinct chair people try to get only family members or nonresidents in — people who live in other counties or cities.

Romulus man shot 5 times in face

Victim was walking in Inkster

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Someone wanted Phillip Pernell dead. They pumped several bullets into the Romulus resident's body to make sure he was dead.

Inkster police are looking for Pernell's killer, and right now they don't have a motive or clues in the city's latest homicide.

According to an Inkster resident, who asked that his name not be used, the victim was shot at least five times in the face.

"He must have known his killer," said the resident. "This guy (killer) must have walked right up to him and shot him."

Pernell, who lived in the 8000 block of Wharman Street in the City of Romulus, had been shot several times during the late afternoon hours on Nov. 27 on the city's southside.

"We don't have any suspects," said Inkster Police Chief Terry Colwell, "and we also don't have very much to work on, so we're asking citizens' cooperation in hopes of solving this homicide."

Colwell said that the homicide division has talked to several residents in the 3100 block of Ash Street, but nothing concrete has developed at this time.

The Romulus Police Department also was contacted Monday to see if that department had any information about Pernell or his activities, but the murdered victim was not known by Romulus police.

What the Inkster police have revealed at this time is that on Nov. 27, approximately 7:45 p.m., officers were dispatched to investigate a call "that a man was down on Ash Street."

When officers arrived at the scene they found a black male who had been shot several times. The shooting victim was rushed to Annapolis Hospital in Wayne, where doctors determined that the patient should be airlifted to the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor for treatment.

Police said Pernell's wounds proved to be fatal. He died Sept. 28 at the Ann Arbor hospital.

Police are urging anyone with information in the fatal shooting to contact them, or Detective Jeff Falkenstein, who has been assigned the case.

Det. Falkenstein may be reached by dialing 313-563-9856.

GM, school to build robot

General Motors Powertrain-Romulus Engine Operations and Romulus High School will combine to design and construct a special robot this year.

Director of Engineering and Manufacturing Meryl Gorsline recently presented a check for $5,000 to high school staff members to fund the project. GM engineers will also be helping with the design, as well.

Each year the U.S. FIRST (For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology) Organization sponsors a national robotics competition. This year's competition asks students from various schools to build a robot that will pick-up basketballs while fending off two opposing robots.

Thus the design will be very challenging as the robot will have to be able to defend itself against an attack from competing robots while having the means necessary to disable competitors. Robotics teacher Terry Birds says that, "this project often involves over 100 extra hours of time from all participants. Once you are into it, the project just demands total concentration and effort by all."

This year's FIRST contest will be held at Eastern Michigan University.

Council debates cellular towers

By STEFANIE CARANO
MCN Special Writer

Voicestream Wireless Corporation, a digital cellular phone and wireless web service company based in Bellevue, Washington, wishes to build two towers in Romulus. One is at the corner of Wayne and Northline Road and the other is on the Department of Public Works property.

City council debated the use of the property on Northline Road for the 150-foot tower, concerned that it would be an eyesore.

Technical Director for Voicestream Wireless, Keith David, stated Voicestream had carefully considered the location and height of the tower. They want the property on Northline Road because it was not close to any residential or commercial areas. It is also in close proximity to I-275, allowing for better reception to larger amounts of cellular phone users.

The Planning Commission for Romulus had previously denied site plan approval and advised against it in a memo to Mayor Alan Lambert.

Voicestream also requested council authorization to build a tower at the DPW site, where several antennas are already located. The council approved the use of that site. They also decided that for the Northline Road property, the city attorney would review the proposal and make a recommendation.

It is not known when construction of the DPW site tower would take place.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Habitat breaks ground on Gabriel

Habitat for Humanity, N.A. Mans Builders and the City of Romulus are teaming together in an effort to eliminate substandard housing in the area.

At an official "ground blessing" ceremony last week, Mayor Alan Lambert with representatives from Habitat for Humanity, announced plans for their first house on a building sited donated by N.A. Mans. Located on Gabriel Road, the site comes complete with a poured basement.

"We are very excited to be working with Habitat toward our common goal of moving these families into what, in most cases, is the first decent home they've ever had," said Mayor Lambert.

According to Doug Mans, the Gabriel property became available through a bankruptcy and its donation by Mans has been the catalyst for moving Habitat into Romulus.

"We are thrilled," exclaimed Sheila Friedrich, Executive Director of Habitat, Western Wayne. "We have always wanted to serve the Romulus community, and now N.A. Mans has given us the chance we've been waiting for."

Salhaney named REA director

Vice Chapter Director Jason Salhaney has assumed the position of Chapter Director of the Romulus Education Association. Salhaney takes over for Jim Orme, who announced his plans to resign in early November.

Salhaney, has represented the REA as building representative for Halecreek Elementary. According to Dorothy West, REA secretary, "Jason has worked tenaciously to promote the goals of the Association and has personally assumed the responsibility for new member education."

Santa Claws to visit DPW

Santa Claws is setting up shop at the Old DPW Building at the corner of Shook and Bibbins between 12-3 on December 15.

Bring your dogs and cats, ferrets and frogs and have their pictures taken with you and Santa. There will be lots of activities and prizes to win. For more information call the Romulus Animal Shelter at 942-7591.

Teachers compete for Cancun trip

The "Tough Teachers", the duo of Rob Batery and Gerlynn Kline are competing with five other teams in Alice's Amazing Race, on the Davis and Darla Morning Show on Alice 106.7FM.

Every morning the teams will travel the metro Detroit area in a timed race to find Alice's secret location. A new clue will be given each morning. The team taking the longest amount of time to get to the daily destination will be eliminated.

The grand prize is a getaway vacation to Cancun.

20 receive All "A"s

The following students received All A's on the Romulus Middle School Honor Roll (first marking period): 7th grade- Shon Aggison, Olivia Berry, Nicole Carroll, Jennifer Dick, Aurielle McCauley, Jessica Mills, Jetaun Robinson, Kevin Stobbe, and Erika Wasson. 8th grade: Carla Anderson, Megan Bearman, Bradley Bills, Ayibatari Burutolu, Doloris Garry, Jeanna Jendritz, Ronald Kreutzer, Jonathan McLachlan, Anne Ross, and Ashlee Wells.

NEWS FROM THE CITY OF WAYNE

Masons set to elect officers

Local Masons will be electing a new slate of officers for 2002. The annual meeting of the Wayne Masonic Temple Association will be conducted at 8 p.m. on Dec. 11 at the Wayne Masonic Temple Hall, 37137 Palmer Road, in Westland. According to Elliott F. Walters, secretary of the Wayne Masonic Temple Association, at the top of Saturday's agenda will be the election of officers (for 2002) and the organization will also "transact such other business as may regularly come before the organization." In an unrelated item, the Wayne Aquatic Area is celebrating its fifth anniversary on Dec. 14, 15 and 16 and special memberships are being offered until the end of the month. For further information please call 721-2244.

Humanitarian act

When terrorists hijacked four jets and deliberately crashed two of them into the World Trade Center in New York City and a third into the Pentagon Building in Washington D. C., killing thousands of innocent men, women and children on Sept. 11, the nation was stunned in disbelief. At the nation's airports, thousands were stranded, until the danger was analyzed. During the tragedy, the congregation at New Hope Missionary Baptist Church opened their doors and their hearts to hundreds of travelers who were grounded at the Detroit Metropolitan Airport. Last week, the church's pastor, Virgil Humes, (center) and his wife, were presented a Wayne City Council Resolution commending the church for their actions and their humanitarian efforts to ease the pain and sorrow of many stranded travelers. One of the first acts that newly-elected Mayor of Wayne, Al Haidous, carried out was to present Pastor Humes with the resolution on behalf of the council and the citizens of Wayne. Senior Services offers free tax advice

Although April 15 is still a few months into the future, and you may be thinking more what Christmas gifts to purchase than filing your state and federal income tax returns, there is, however, no better time than now to prepare for the inevitable - if you make it, you can't avoid the tax man. The Wayne Senior Services Office is sponsoring a tax preparation seminar, free of charge, for residents. The program, in conjunction with the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) will be held on Jan. 2, 2002. Residents wishing to take an advantage of the AARP services are urged to call and make reservations. The telephone number is 721-7460. Senior Services officials stress that "the service is targeted toward senior residents, ages 60 and up, with an annual income of $20,000 or less."

Church announces clothing giveaway

With thousands standing in the unemployment lines these days, and little hope of the economy improving, churches in the area are rallying in support of the needy. The latest group, the congregation at Pentecostal Temple Church of God in Christ, announced this week that they are offering clothing and household items to the needy. They will also accept gifts of used clothing and household items until they distribute the items. The first of three giveway dates at the church is Thurs., Dec. 13, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Those in need may pick up items at the church, located at 30053 Parkwood Ave., in the City of Inkster. There are two other dates set aside by the congregation for the clothing giveaway program: from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 14, and from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 15. Pastor Issac King, Jr. welcomes those families who are in dire need of clothing to his church. The program is being sponsored by the church's Department of Home and Foreign Missions. Willie Mae Pounds serves as president, while Clararetha Spencer and Karen Anderson are assistants. For additional information, the church offices may be reached by dialing 734-722-3060.

Wayne hosts breakfast with Santa

There have been reportings of Santa in Wayne. He arrived a week ago and participated in the annual Rotary Club's parade and the man -in-the red-suit also is the guest of honor at a special breakfast sponsored by the Wayne Parks and Recreation Department. Recreation officials invite you and the family to have breakfast with Santa at the Wayne Community Center on Dec. 15. The Center is located at Annapolis and Howe roads. There will be two sessions for up to 150 guests who will enjoy pancakes, sausage and juice for the ticket price of $4. Of course, Santa will be available for pictures for an additional $2. Other activities will include Face Painting, Arts and Crafts. Tickets are now on sale. For further information, contact the Community Center by dialing 721-7400. The Recreation Department's Adult Community Theatre (ACT) will also present the Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Dramatic Society's production of "A Christmas Carol;" at the State IV Theatre at 8 p.m. on Dec. 7, 8, and the 14th.

Keep Van Buren, Belleville in 34th District Court

There's a proposal floating around the hallways of the State Capitol building that would remove Van Buren Township and the City of Belleville from the 34th District Court in Romulus and add them to the 35th District Court located in Plymouth.

This is a bad idea, and we support the efforts of our local government officials, namely Van Buren Township, Belleville and 34th District Court Chief Judge Tina Brooks-Green to nip this proposal in the bud before it begins to grow.

There are several reasons we believe this proposal to be folly. But most importantly we believe in the basic tenet, if it ain't broke don't fix it.

The 34th District Court enjoys a long record of great service and profitability since it was formed in 1969, and has always served the same communities of Romulus, Van Buren, Belleville, Huron Township and Sumpter Township.

To take two of the biggest communities from this mix and send them on up the road to Plymouth would decimate this fine court. But even more importantly, it would create tremendous hardships on the people of Van Buren and Belleville.

For instance, travel time to Plymouth from these communities would more than double the time it takes to get to the 34th District Court. It's bad enough that residents must travel to Romulus for court business, but the additional hike to Plymouth would be insane.

Couriously enough, no one seems to want to fess up to being the author of the proposal. Senator Loren Bennett, (R-Canton), who represents the district claims no knowledge of the proposal and State Rep. Bruce Patterson (R-Canton), who represents Van Buren and Belleville, as well, has opposed changing the 34th District Court boundaries in the past.

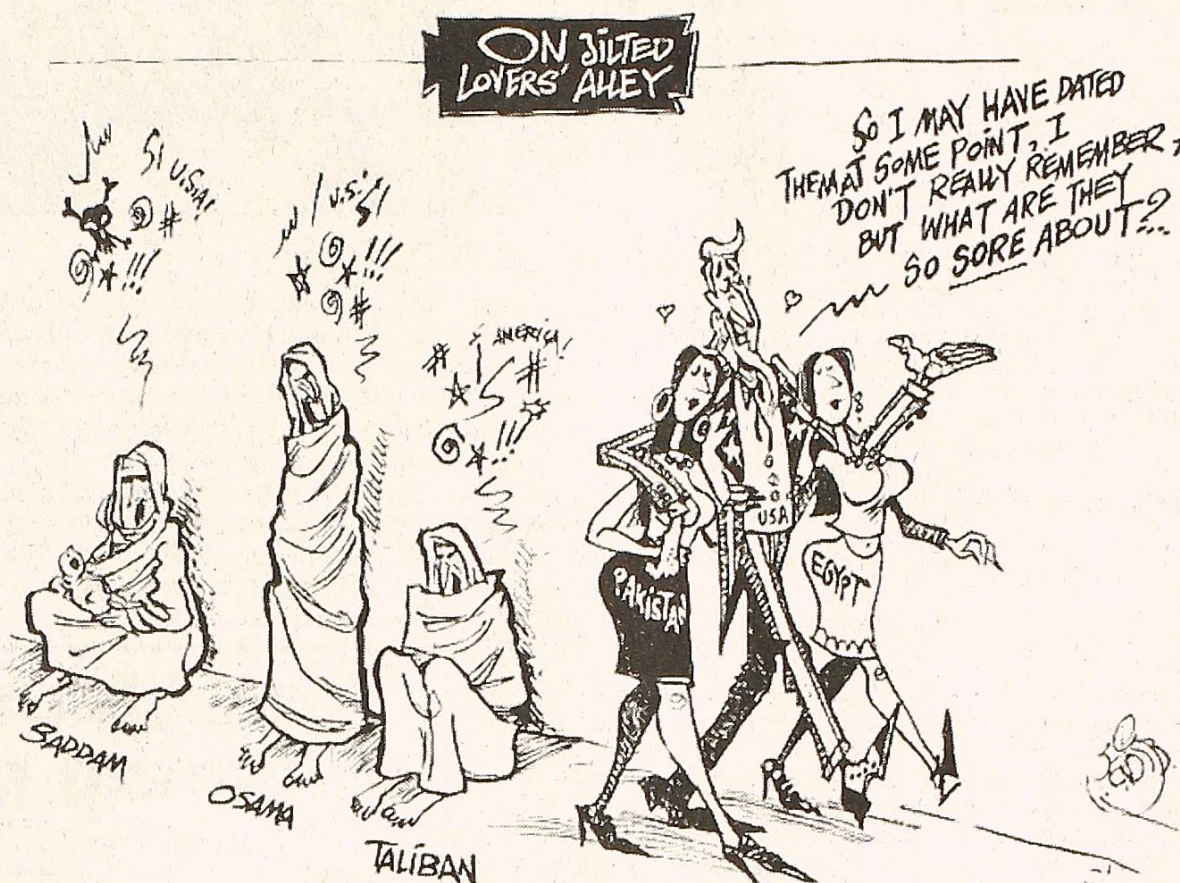

Judge Green claims she was told that a Patterson aide was fronting the proposal. Rep. Patterson has been attempting to get a third judge for the 35th District Court for quite some time and has a bill in the House in an effort to make that happen. But again, he has unequivocally opposed moving Van Buren and Belleville to the 35th District Court.

So what's going on? After Judge Green, Van Buren Township Supervisor Cindy King and Belleville Mayor Tom Fielder rushed to Lansing to protest the proposal, probably very little. The legislature would be foolish to seriously consider a proposal that has little merit and a mountain full of potential public backlash.

Or so we hope. Few can question the need for an additional judge at the 35th District Court, but to get it at the expense of the 26,000 residents that make up Van Buren and Belleville would be a tragedy.

Fighting recession Lansing-style

Now that the federal government has officially confirmed that we have been in a recession since March of this year, politicians at federal and state levels are scrambling with ideas to pull us out of it. There almost seems to be a consensus that we have to spend our way out of it.

But who "we" is seems to be as confused as what the meaning of "is" is.

One faction thinks tax cuts will provide more money to "spend." But even there a split develops between the size of cuts for corporations as opposed to ordinary people. A second faction seems to believe that government can blunt the recession by more spending on existing and new programs.

Some are even suggesting that the Bush tax cut (as controversial as it is) has brought on the recession. This despite the fact that his tax cuts don't go in to effect until next year. That's right, those "rebates" many received were not a part of tax cuts. The taxes due by April 15th next year (for calendar 2001) will be at the old higher rates. Their tax refunds will just be smaller than they would have been without the

Medium Rare
Jim Rarey

"advance" payments.

Michigan State Senator John Schwarz apparently belongs to the second faction that believes it is up to government to spend more. He has introduced a bill in Lansing (SB 0880) that would impose a new annual tax on telephone and cable service lines and facilities of $.07 per foot of lines. It would also tax wireless communications (eg. satellite TV and Internet communications).

Senator Schwarz seems to have discovered a new constitutional right of the "people" to have high-speed Internet connections. Since some rural areas do not yet have that access, Schwarz would create a state bureaucracy to parcel out the tax money collected to various service providers in the form of "grants" (read gifts) to provide that access.

Since many local governments already assess a similar (one time) tax on telephone and cable lines, Schwarz would preempt those taxes but return half of the estimated $70 million per year to local governments. Most of the rest would go to the new state agency.

Who would pay that $70 million in new state taxes? Well, Schwartz' bill would allow the service providers to pass it on to their customers throughout the state, if approved by the Public Service Commission (PSC), which incidentally would get 3.5% of the tax take.

What Schwarz ignores is the fact that only 12% of those that have high-speed access available have chosen to sign up for a couple of reasons. One, of course is the extra expense. The high-speed connection runs anywhere from $20 to $30 higher per month than the slower dial-up service over telephone lines and both costs would increase if Schwarz' bill is adopted. Some people just don't see where they need more speed.

Maybe Schwarz is just trying to gain rural votes with taxpayer subsidized high-speed Internet access. After all, he is a candidate for governor.

Zech, not voters, are confused about the costly incinerator

If City Manager John Zech of Wayne thinks the voters of Westland were confused, maybe he should rethink that statement. Just because Westland residents are the only citizens of the five cities in the Central Wayne County Sanitation Authority that even mention the stupid incinerator or question its costs, we just might be better off.

Slowly — and no thanks to our past and some current elected officials — people are becoming more aware of this huge expense. Perhaps the time has come that Westland has to bite the bullet and call for some major changes at the table.

The confused ones are the idiots who thought this was such a great thing for our cities and sucked us into a 40-year contract that benefits the outsiders and not us. You people got the taxpayers into this and now you expect the taxpayers, as usual, to bail you out time after time. Thanks for nothing.

Don't make the red, white and blue motif into a fashion trend

In some countries as part of their religious beliefs and even in some families, people grieve for a very long time. Have we all already moved on with our lives to the extent of forgetting about the events of Sept. 11?

Just the title itself bugs me, nobody knows what to call "it." You don't want to mention just the World Trade Center because of the planes that crashed in Pennsylvania and at the Pentagon.

The vague reference to the War on Terrorism doesn't help either. Just like the War on Drugs, it is too big of a problem to act as if any amount of bombing or financial support will eradicate the situation.

Let's keep this whole matter focused on the human aspect and we will get much farther in my opinion. Keep those flags flying, but don't make the red, white and blue motif into just a fashion trend.

Show your good citizenship by generously giving to help your fellow man this holiday season and for once ease off of the excessive spending and excessive eating and drinking, your waistline and your bank statement will thank you come January.

December brings good news

As Christmas approaches, Western Wayne County is ablaze with a lot of good news and a miracle or two.

"We had a miracle," said Nancy Spencer, Canton Goodfellow's chairwoman, "and now we'll be able to help our 260 needy children."

Going into the weekend, Spencer has little hope of collecting the $10,000 needed to feed and buy Christmas gifts and food baskets for the children and another 25 seniors because Chief Police John Santomauro had told the service group that they could not sell Goodfellows newspapers in Canton's streets. For 40 years, Goodfellows newsboys had raised money with their once-a-year sale. But not this year. Santomauro had decided to enforce a state law against soliciting in traffic because of motorists complaints against solicitors from the Christian Life/Church of David for aggressiveness and obstructing traffic last winter.

"Our motivation is traffic safety," Santomauro had said.

Newsboys would have to sell on sidewalks and in the township's strip malls.

Since newspaper sales accounted for $3,000-$4,000, the fund-raising prospects appeared dim on Saturday, the day chosen for the annual sale.

But in stepped John Zeleji (Johnny Z.), owner of Auto Craft Collision on Michigan Avenue, who donated $2,500 to the Canton Goodfellows on behalf of the Detroit Motor City Pinheads.

"We're a group of pinstripers," said Zeleji.

The donation helped raise the Goodfellows' take to $4,600, their largest charitable haul in years.

In addition to Pinheads' large contribution, the take was increased by 14 new newsboys. Last year, only 16 residents volunteered to sell newspapers. This year 30 turned out.

Vantastic

The second piece of good news were the first-floor Christmas decorations inside of Canton's town hall.

Not only is there a Christmas tree in the lobby, outside of the treasurer's office, but a Santa Claus sits atop the township clerk's counter. A string of Santa stockings are strung behind the clerk's counter.

This is in sharp contrast to the stark exterior of the Administration Building, where only the "winter holiday season" is celebrated.

Previously, the township had strictly followed the US Supreme Court's "two plastic animals ruling," which allows nonreligious Christmas decorations on public property. Accordingly, in previous years, three white wire abstract reindeer were placed on the Administration Building's lawn, a wreath on the wall, and that was it.

Thanks to Clerk Terry Bennett and Treasurer Elaine Kirchgatter's spirit of joy and goodwill for all and their wish for peace on earth, no visitors to town hall will have to ask, "Was Scrooge put in charge of the decorations?"

The corporate world provided another bit of good news: cars are selling.

On Monday, Ford reported that November domestic sales rose by 5 percent over November 2000.

Zero-percent financing is working. F-Series pickup trucks, Escape sport utility vehicle and Windstar minivan all posted record November sales.

Car sales were up 1.8 percent last month over November 2000, while truck sales rose 6.6 percent. Good times may be around the corner.

Ed McNamara is not usually associated with good news. He's usually associated with good-news-bad-news jokes.

In Saturday's Freep, Hugh McDiarmid attributed one to Oakland County Exec Brooks Patterson, speaking about a public transit contract he signed with McNamara.

"The good news is we've got an agreement," said Patterson. "The bad news is that Ed McNamara is in charge of letting the contracts."

But the good news is that the McNamara will not run for reelection as Wayne County Exec next year.

Next year will be McNamara's 16th at the helm, but the years and an ailing heart have taken a toll on him. Instead of running the county's day-to-day operations, the old pol spends a great deal of time golfing in Florida, tending more to his powerful political machine than the people's business.

When I lived in Oakland County, on a lake near Brooks Patterson, I lacked Patterson's knowledge of McNamara. I had only known of Detroit Mayor Coleman Young, who was neither widely appreciated nor trusted in Oakland's burbs.

A year in Wayne County and I learned that Young was not the bad boy of Wayne politics, he was merely McNamara's decoy.

The final bit of good news, like the first, is also a miracle. Mayor Bob Thomas has been spotted at Westland City Hall.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

Flag offend you? Tough luck!

To the editor:
I found this and thought it would be of interest to all.
Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, school officials remove "God Bless America" signs from schools in fear that someone might be offended.
Channel 12 News in Long Island, New York orders flags removed from the newsroom and red, white, blue ribbons from the lapels of reporters. Why? Management did not want to appear biased and felt that our nation's flag might give the appearance that "they lean one way or another."
Berkeley, California bans U.S. Flags from being displayed on city fire trucks because they didn't want to offend anyone in the community.
In an "act of tolerance" the head of the public library at Florida Gulf Coast University ordered all "Proud to be Americans" signs removed so as to not offend international students.
I, for one, am quite disturbed by these actions of so-called American citizens; and I am tired of this nation worrying about whether or not we are offending some individual or their culture. Since the terrorist attacks on September 11, we have experienced a surge in patriotism by the majority of Americans. However, the dust from the attacks had barely settled in New York and Washington D.C. when the "politically correct" crowd began complaining about the possibility that our patriotism was offending others.

I am not against immigration, nor do I hold a grudge against anyone who is seeking a better life by coming to America. In fact, our country's population is almost entirely comprised of descendants of immigrants; however, there are a few things that those who have recently come to our country, and apparently some native Americans, need to understand.
First of all, it is not our responsibility to continually try not to offend you in any way. This idea of American being a multi-cultural community has served only to dilute our sovereignty and our national identity. As Americans, we have our own culture, our own society, our own language, and our own lifestyle. This culture, called the "American Way" has been developed over centuries of struggles, trials, and victories by millions of men and women who have sought freedom. Our forefathers fought, bled, and died at places such as Bunker Hill, Antietam, San Juan, Iwo Jima, Normandy, Korea, and Vietnam.

We speak English, not Spanish, Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, Russian, or any other language.
Therefore, if you wish to become part of our society - LEARN OUR LANGUAGE!
"In God We Trust" is our national motto. This is not some off-the-wall, Christian, Right Wing, political slogan - it is our national motto. It is engraved in stone in tile House of Representatives in our Capitol and it is printed on our currency. We adopted this motto to be inscribed in the halls of our highest level of government, and then it is certainly appropriate to display it on the walls of our schools.
God is in our pledge, our National Anthem, nearly every patriotic song, and in our founding documents. We honor His birth, death, and resurrection as holidays, and we turn to Him in prayer in times of crisis. If God ofends you, then I suggest you consider another part of the world as your new home, because God is part of our culture and we are proud to have Him.

We are Proud of our heritage and those who have so honorably defended our freedoms. We celebrate Independence Day, Memorial Day, Veterans Day, and Flag Day. We have parades, picnics, and barbecues where we proudly wave our flag. As an American, I have the right to wave my flag, sing my national anthem, quote my national motto, and cite my pledge whenever and wherever I choose. If the Stars and Stripes offend you, or you don't like Uncle Sam, then you should seriously consider a move to another part of the planet.

The American culture is our way of life, our heritage, and we are proud of it. We are happy with our culture and have no desire to change, and we really don't care how you did things where you came from. We are Americans like it or not, this is our country, our land, and our lifestyle.
Our First Amendment gives every citizen the right to express his opinion about our government, culture, or society and we will allow you every opportunity to do so. But once you are done complaining, whining, and griping about our flag, our pledge, our national motto, or our way of life, I highly encourage you take advantage of one other great American freedom, THE RIGHT TO LEAVE.
Sincerely,
Jan Plonski

MICHIGAN COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS

2001 ALL-AREA FOOTBALL TEAM

CHARLES SEARCY

One of the most productive and exciting players to wear a Romulus High football uniform in recent years, senior running back and quarterback Charles Searcy, capped a sterling prep career as an All-State repeater. He reached this achievement although his team failed to win a game this season. No one can blame Searcy - he gave 110 percent every time he was on the field. The 5-9, 165, three-year starter, rushed for 653-yards, scored 11 touchdowns and was the heart and soul of the Eagles' offense.

Canton's Baechler Coach of the Year

In a span of four years, Coach Tim Baechler has turned Plymouth-Canton into a respected gridiron power not only in a tough conference, the Western Lakes, but in the state.

Baechler inherited a program four years ago that was spinning its wheels and going nowhere. He turned it around.

In his first year as head coach at Canton, Baechler's Chiefs posted a 3-6 record; the following year they were 4-5, and a year ago, Canton emerged with its best record ever when the Chiefs went 8-4.

Though some believed that the 8-4 was a fluke, Baechler came back in 2001 and convinced the skeptics that the Chiefs are for real. They finished 9-2 on the year in 2001 - the Chiefs' only losses were to Farmington Hills Harrison, in the title game of the Western Division season; and to Walled Lake Western, in the post season, a team that they beaten in the regular season.

Harrison went on to win its fifth straight state championship.

"During his tenure as head coach at Plymouth-Canton," says a local coach who asked that his name not be used, Coach Tim Baechler has done more for the football program over there than all of his predecessors put together."

The statistics would support that argument.

Baechler, whose coaching credentials also include a five-year

Tim Baechler
Coach of the Year

stint at Hudson High School, attributes the success of his team to the players who excel academically as well as physically and a dedicated staff. He said that last year's outstanding junior varsity team provided the nucleus for this year's squad.

"We had a good junior class a year ago, and that always helps," stressed Baechler, "but it also helps to have excellent assistant coaches like Scott Dickie, Dave Smilo, Bob Williams and Tony Boucher."

The Canton coach also noted that coach Homer Elias, who passed away earlier this year, has been an inspiration to the staff and the players.

Before the final words in the 2001 season is written, however, there is yet another honor to be bestowed upon the Canton coach. The Michigan Community Newspapers' Sports Staff believes that Baechler's achievement and dedication warrants the Canton coach as the MCN's "Coach of the Year for 2001."

Because of space limitations in this week's edition, the MCN Sports Staff was forced to delay the Honorable Mention list and the All-Area profiles of the following members of the 2001 All-Area Team: Anthony Davis (John Glenn), DeAnthony Granberry (John Glenn), Carl Sanders (John Glenn), Brandon Aljouny (John Glenn), Kyle Lasko (Plymouth-Canton), Dan Farkas (Plymouth-Canton), Chris Smilo (Plymouth-Canton), Raymond Burton (Belleville), Joe Orskey (Belleville) and Mike Hall (Belleville). We regret the delay and an inconvenience it may create.

ANDREW PEIFFER

Undoubtedly one of the most dominant players on John Glenn's team in 2001 was 6-2, 190-pound senior linebacker/wide receiver Andrew Peiffer who spearheaded the Rockets' drive for championships in the Western Lakes Conference and in the playoffs. Peiffer carried out everything a coach could ask of a player. As a wide receiver he rewrote the record with 42 catches. The team's captain, he was the perfect role model for a young Glenn team that wasn't supposed to have a 9-2 season. Andrew was a unanimous All-State pick.

BRANDON WRIGHT

Brandon Wright's smiling demeanor betrays his untiring desire to compete in the pits and trenches. The 5-8, 210-pound senior Plymouth-Canton guard kept those who confronted him in their place with his strength compounded by a Spartan weight-training problem he imposed upon himself. Covering the 40 in 4.9, he also has the quickness to adjust to any situation. Not only a unanimous all-conference selection, Wright also was named to the All-Metro West and All-State Teams.

JERRIEL BURRUS

An explosive player whether on offense or defense, 5-9, 170-pound Belleville senior Jerriel Burrus came up with the big plays for the Tigers. As the starting QB, he rushed for 839 yards on 92 attempts for 9.1 per carry. He scored 12 touchdowns rushing, and he also completed 17 of 50 passes, two of those went for TDs. As a free safety, the crafty Burrus managed to pick off two passes, recovered a fumble and made 45 tackles. Jerriel also returned punts and kickoffs - four of which went for touchdowns.

MIKE TOLHURST

Although he was an outstanding inside linebacker, senior Mike Tolhurst was switched to defensive tackle to help the team shore up a hole in the Plymouth-Canton defensive line. "We had to move him from his linebacker's post to the line," said Canton coach Tim Baechler. "He was a great defensive tackle for us." A three-year starter for the Chiefs, Tolhurst this season accounted for 15 solo tackles, 25 assists and had seven sacks to lead the team. He also managed to block two punts.

MARCUS JOHNSON

A Sprint All-American and a three-time All-Mega Conference, Gold Division selection, Marcus Johnson played tight end and wide-out for coach Mark Medlock's Bulldogs at Robichaud High School. Johnson has impressive stats - he accounted for the majority of the Bulldogs' receptions, racking up over 650 yards on more than 30 receptions. He also averaged over 25-yards per catch and had seven touchdowns. His best effort this season was against Redford where he caught seven passes for 178 yards.

BRIAN CECKIEWICZ

Three years ago, then freshman Brian Ceckiewicz strolled on to the football field at John Glenn, he said he wanted to play quarterback, and Coach Chuck Gordon liked what he saw in the 6-3, 180-pound athlete. Ceckiewicz has held the job ever since. This season Brian led the Rockets to a 9-3 season which included the Western Lakes, Lakes Division title, a district championship, and a trip to the regional finals where Glenn lost to Detroit Catholic Central.

ZACK JENSEN

Considered the team's workhorse, Plymouth-Salem's Zack Jensen has been a two-year starter for the Rocks. The 6-2, 230-pound senior who earned All-Western Lakes Conference recognition as a lineman, played every snap this season, a season of Salem's discontent. "This was one of those rebuilding years for us," said first-year Coach Bob Cummings, "so Zack had to work overtime to keep this team competitive. He definitely was our workhorse and we're going to miss him next year."

ERIC CASEY

Standing 6-4 and at 260-pounds, senior Eric Casey developed into the most dominant force on the Inkster High ball club this season. As a defensive end, Casey counted 10 solos and 62 tackles and was the leader at both ends on Coach Troy Kyles' team. Casey was one of two Vikings named to the All-Mega-Gold Team. "He definitely has the talent and the work ethics to make it on any college team," said Coach Kyles.

DANE KOBUS

Playing a key role in the sudden emergence of Plymouth-Canton as a Western Lakes Conference and area football power was team captain and leader Dane Kobus, one of three players from Coach Tim Baechler's team who was also drafted for the All-Metro West Team. The 6-0, 215-pound Kobus sparkled in the conflict on the gridiron this season which ended unexpectedly with a loss to Walled Lake Western, a team that the Chiefs had beaten. He also was named All-State.

JOE CLAYBRON

The most dynamic player in the Robichaud lineup this season was 6-3, 200-pound senior Joe Claybron who not only quarterbacked the Bulldogs but also was a defensive halfback. Claybron was credited with a team high five interceptions and returned two of those for touchdowns. He also made 56 solo tackles. As the QB, Claybron amassed nearly 2000 yards, 800 of those passing. He passed for 10 TDs and rushed for eight others.

KEITH LACROIX

One of the big reasons why opposing teams had problems scoring on Romulus was due to the efforts of Keith LaCroix, a 5-10, 190-pound senior linebacker who carded 43 tackles, recovered three fumbles and ran one of those three back for a touchdown. LaCroix played his first two years of high school football at Dearborn Heights Robichaud before transferring to Romulus. "When he hits people they know that they have been hit," said Coach Wade Cook.

WESS BOYDE

As a two-year varsity performer, Plymouth-Salem's Wess Boyde had the experience and used his instincts to lead the Rocks' linebackers' corps. A senior who is 6-1 and 215 pounds, Boyde managed to collect 30 solo tackles, counted 31 assists and also chalked up four sacks of the quarterback. Wess managed to break up three pass plays."

FRED HARBOR

"Quick and tough" are the adjectives that Romulus coach Wade Cook uses to describe senior linebacker-fullback Fred Harbor, who led the Eagles on defense this season. Harbor is credited with 83 career tackles, of which 17 were sacks. He also caused the opposition to fumble five times. He recovered two of those turnovers.

CHRIS COX

A three-year starter and captain of the Wayne Memorial team, Chris Cox was the mainstay of the Zebra defense. The 6-2, 215 pound senior linebacker has 215 career tackles which ranks third on the all-time tackle list for Wayne. His durability, as well as love for the game, was reflected by the fact (and stat) that during his four-year high school career Cox has never missed a practice or game.

RANDY CALLAHAN

A transplant from Florida, Randy Callahan became the anchor to the Robichaud line on offense. His solid 5-10, 260-pound frame also made him a natural on defense where he chalked up 50 tackles and recovered a pair of fumbles. "He was a solid two-way performer for us," said Coach Mark Medlock. "Callahan was usually the first player on the field and the last player to leave."

STEVEN MOORE

Wherever Coach Wade Cook needed senior Steven Moore to play, the 6-2, 180-pound senior was ready for the challenge. Moore quarterbacked the 2001 Eagles, and when his team needed a defensive end, he was there to take on the grueling assignment. As an end Moore collected 28 tackles and recovered a fumble that eventually resulted in a TD.

ANTOINE JORDAN

It is rare, very rare, that an athlete will start four years for a team coached by Belleville's Bob LaPointe. But Antoine Jordan isn't an ordinary athlete - he's extraordinary and he managed to accomplish that rare feat. "He's a dedicated and keen player who can do just about anything for a team," said LaPointe, commenting on the 6-2, 210-pound outside linebacker who also played tight end for the Mega-Red champs.

MICHAEL RASHAD

Following in the footsteps of his father and brother, Michael Rashad comes from a family of outstanding athletes. The 6-3, 185-pound senior halfback managed to pick off three interceptions, and run one back for a touchdown. He also is credited with four sacks of the quarterback, a couple of those resulting in huge losses. "Rashad is a very intense ball player who is a sure tackler," said coach Floyd Carter.

SCOTT HEWITT

Senior Plymouth-Salem Quarterback Scott Hewitt, who doubled as a free safety, appeared tireless in his dual role. He never quit. The 6-1, 175-pound veteran of two hectic Rock seasons recovered two fumbles, broke up five pass plays, had a total of 55 tackles, 35 of which were unassisted. When he was not directing the defense, Hewitt was at the throttle of the offense.

BRENT COLAINNE

A two-way performer at Wayne Memorial, 5-11, 235-pound Brent Colainne doubled as a center on offense and was a dominant force on the defensive line for coach Floyd Carter's Zebras. A senior with two years experience as a starter who also earned All-Mega Conference consideration, Colainne takes great pride in his blocking ability.

CHRIS LARKINS

Chris Larkins, a two-year starter, is one of the building blocks that Inkster Coach Troy Kyles will use to create the nucleus of a winning team in 2002. A 5-11, 220-pound junior who was never off the field, Larkins played fullback and was the Vikings' middle linebacker. He counted 62 tackles, 10 of them solos, and he also had two fumble recoveries.

KENNETH WALKER

A two-year starter, 6-3, 220-pound senior defensive end Kenneth Walker is credited for being "the glue" that kept Robichaud together in an up-and-down season. As a defensive end, Walker carded a team high 65 tackles of which 10 were for losses. "He definitely was this team's inspirational leader," said coach Mark Medlock.

ANSON LONG

An outstanding athlete who been a starter at wide receiver for Coach Wade Cook's Eagles at Romulus High, 5-10, 190-pound senior Anson Long has tremendous speed. He generated excitement on the field this season in a very frustrated Romulus year. As a wide receiver, Long caught 15 passes for 212 yards.
